Auf Wiedersehen

We hope to give all our students a blessing similar to the one we gave Neptune and her boyfriend Pok Pek (who requested it)--- May you have God's wisdom to make right choices; His courage to follow the right paths; and most precious-- the wonderful love of Jesus.

Boon and Opal...

Surprise! Our sendoff wouldn't be complete without balloons, cookies, and lemonade. We are taking many fond memories with us and have had several opportunities to pray with them. Hoping Boon and Opal will come stay with us in Ohio next summer.

After School...

The Tower of Babel... Building a house of cards... They seemed to make the connection....

Learning from our Students

Neptune and Pok Pek are serious about coming to America—even in winter. We have had the open door to share Jesus with them. You will get to meet them in a few months, God willing.

Another farewell party. Our Wed evening ladies interrupted our well-prepared lesson with a sneaky surprise. Noi (second from left) has been able to share her Christian faith with Lek and Jeab. That's inspiring.

Friends in the Park

Dollar pancakes—always with a smile (and only cost 20B).

Aerobics with a twist. Belly dancing—Thai style

Ministry in Chiang Rai...

We had the privilege of accompanying Dang, Director of CWEFT Ministries, and Debby, Team Coordinator of MOST Ministries, on a six-day safari to Chiang Rai and the surrounding countryside. We visited two temples, a coffee plantation, two tea plantations, and four hill tribes. An unforgettable experience in several ways...

First stop—a Lahu orphanage, where a dedicated Christian woman has taken 15 young children into her home. Here they are showing us their neighborhood, helping us maneuver around mud puddles.

Third stop—a tribal welcome high above the Golden Triangle. And a great opportunity to partner with short-term mission teams—eyeglass and water filtration.

Second stop—an Akha school, where a pastor and his wife have given up a bedroom in their small home for a student dormitory.

Students impressed us with mature and thoughtful answers to the question: What do you like best about your school?

Fourth stop—a Hmong village, where a small church cares for its community in many ways.

Parting Thought...

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings, ...who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.” Christ Jesus, our King.

George & Margot

Thank you, our support team, for all your prayers. It has been our privilege to serve the Lord in this place. We are unsure whether we will pass this way again... Isn't it good to know that God knows, and that his Spirit guides our every step.
